THE LAW'S DELAY.

TUESDAY EVENING. APRIL 19, 1910

Shivers chreed up and down the epines of some of the spectators in the Saprence Court of the United States yesterday when Holmes Conrad, formerly solicit general of the United States, celled t the attention of the court the frequency of the visits of death to that venerable beach. He was esting that a case be decided by the court hafore more vacau-

Virginia to bear a portion of the state debt at the time the latter state became a member of the union. On behalf of West Virginia, ex-Senator John C. Spooner had asked the court to fix a date next fall for the argument fall for the argument fall for the argument fall for the argument fall for the case argued this spring. Mr. Conrad, on behalf of the spring. Mr. Conrad, on behalf of the handholders intercated in the litigation, handholders intercated in the litigation, and has near this spring.

"Already two vacancies have occurred on this bench," said Mr. Conrad, "sinc-this suit was brought. For 18 month. the master had had the case under con-sideration; $60,000 had teen spent in taking testimony, $10,000 of which went to the stenographers alone."

He concluded by stating he was sure the court appreciated the importance of this case, and how desirable it was to have it "considered by the justices who heard the beginning of it."

As the counsel taiked the faces of the justices hardened. Spectators looked at one another, No one interposed a word, but a painful suspense ended when the speaker sat down. Ohief Justice Fuller said only that the court would "take the matter under consideration."

Alexandria!

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT.

We started our enterprise lagainst many advice: to "stay away," "Dou't do it." &c, but we were onto the fact that Alexandria could no more silved to be without its Lunch Room than any other city.

We have achieved at least a modest success We have schieved at least a modest success and we find that Alexandria does not differ from other cities and that it has an appetite. We believe that it is possible to go on to bigger and better things so we keep the matter well before you and will build our business as big and fine as your taste and patronage justifies. Patronize us liberally and "WE'LL DO THE REST."
